Janngen-Poehn Stiftung (CH)	The purpose of the “Janggen-Pöhn-Stiftung” is to enable young, outstandingly qualified Swiss citizens who already have an academic degree at the master’s level, to receive further scientific training. All fields of study except Theology are eligible. The foundation concentrates on those applicants who are eligible for an academic career or who can be expected to achieve outstanding scientific achievements in other ways. They must not have exceeded the age of 32 years.	All disciplines (except Theology)	Submission possible at any time.
Kunsthistorisches Institut in Florenz, Max-Planck-Institut (G/I): Scholarships and Short-term Funding	The “Kunsthistorische Institut in Florenz” supports the research projects of outstanding young scholars by awarding contracts and fellowships. The duration of the funding is usually up to 3 years for doctoral students and 2 years for postdocs, in addition there are short-term funding opportunities. In addition, there is the possibility to work as a student or research assistant at the institution during the qualification phase (Master’s / PhD).	Art History	Funding opportunities are advertised on the Institute’s website and via the usual mailing lists and Internet portals.
Stiftung der Deutschen Wirtschaft – Studieförderwerk Klaus Murmann (G): Doctoral Scholarships	The aim of the “Stiftung der Deutschen Wirtschaft” is to promote entrepreneurial thinking in accordance with social responsibility. To this end, the “Förderwerk Klaus Murmann” supports high-achieving doctoral students at the beginning of their doctorate (final funding is not possible!) who take on social responsibility and actively help shape solutions for society. All disciplines are welcome. Funding is available to German and foreign young researchers who have been admitted to a doctoral program at a university in Germany, Switzerland or another EU country. However, a full doctorate outside Germany will only be funded if active, regular participation in a “Stipendiatengruppe” can be credibly assured (“Stipendiatengruppen” outside Germany exist in London, Paris, Zurich and Vienna). If you are unsure whether you are eligible to apply, please contact the foundation in advance!	All disciplines	Two calls per year, the dates are usually announced towards the end of the previous year.
